

SAMANTHA FOOTE, MM, MT-BC

NEUROLOGIC MUSIC THERAPIST,
PODCAST HOST

Samantha, the co-host of the podcast "Every Brain is Different," is dedicated to providing valuable resources and fostering connections for individuals with diverse abilities. As a neurodivergent person herself and a mother raising three neurodivergent children, Samantha brings a unique perspective to the podcast.

"Every Brain is Different" specializes in conducting insightful interviews with neurodivergent individuals and their allies. By sharing personal stories and experiences, the podcast aims to educate and inspire listeners. Samantha's mission is to empower parents, children, and adults by helping them develop emotional awareness, enhance social skills, and cultivate effective coping mechanisms.

Samantha is a board-certified Neurologic Music Therapy Fellow, leveraging the power of music to support neurodivergent individuals. She is a Dialectical Behavior Therapy-informed Music Therapist, using evidence-based practices to assist her clients. As a Positive Discipline Parent Educator, she equips parents with positive and effective parenting strategies.

With Samantha's dedication and comprehensive skill set, "Every Brain is Different" is a valuable resource for anyone seeking to better understand and support the neurodivergent community.
